

RESEARCH INTERN

The Basics:

- A fulltime internship position
- From July – December 2017
- Lively 10 people office in the heart of Amsterdam
- Research and report on the future of student living and higher education
- This is a paid position.

What it is about

For the leading think tank in student living and higher education in Europe, we are looking for a research intern to help us stay up to date on developments in student housing and higher education in Europe. Your research helps identify trends in the market, and keeps us on top of what is going on in the world of student living and higher education.

The Class of 2020 is a non-profit partner based foundation for student living and higher education on a European scale. Each year we publish an annual trends report, organise the largest student housing conference in continental Europe, and much more. For more information: www.theclassof2020.org

What will you be doing?

You will be responsible for tracking news about student housing in Europe, filing this news in our database, writing about the future of student living and university-cities and expanding our network of higher education and student housing connections. You will be a sparring partner for our research team and foundation manager. The job is based in Amsterdam, and will be fully in English. We are able to support you in an academic research project (thesis) on the future of student living and European higher education.

What kind of person are we looking for?

- A current BA or MA level student;
- Background in Real Estate, Urban Planning, Public Policy, Economics, Higher Education Studies or related fields;
- Understanding of and/or affinity with the real estate market and developments in the world of higher education;
- Affinity with and knowledge of data organisation;
- Capable of independent work
- Fluent in English, both spoken and written;
- Knowledge of another European language would be an advantage.

Want to apply?

If you meet the requirements and are keen to join the Class of 2020, please send your CV and covering letter to work@theclassof2020.org